English Across the Curriculum

2a

The text mentions hills, bridges, crossroads and rivers.

2b

MOŽNÉ ODPOVĚDI

Hills are important because they make towns safer from floods and from attack.

Bridges are important because you need them to cross a river.

Crossroads are important because people from other towns can come to your town to buy and sell things in the market.

Rivers are important because people need water for drinking and for washing, and for travelling by boat.
